

Topics for brainstorming

What can be done to increase research output?

- To design a research architecture at an institutional level
- Identify the research pillars which consists of group of researchers having a common research interest

What are the suitable indicators for research output?

- Research projects
- Publications
- Review articles
- Supervisions of Master and PhD thesis
- Scientific conferences etc.

What is the research environment at the partner institutions?

- Based on institutional profile, creating an interdisciplinary environment of research can be efficient for research and development
- PhD student engagements to research groups

What insentive in support of research should be expected from university management?

- Joint initiatives of subscribing to scientific internationally recognized, peer-reviewed on-line resources on consortium level (sharing costs of subscription)
- MoU to support co-supervision of PhD Students
- Internal promotion regarding institutional post and/or financial rewards
- Regulatory scheme for project work hours/teaching/research load